

Events and Activities Calendar 2024

Here are Wild Maidenhead's events and activities which have been organised for 2024 so far. More events will be added to this calendar so please watch out for changes. For those events with limited places, please register on Meetup (<https://www.meetup.com/wildmaidenhead/>) so that you can book your place. Please see www.wildmaidenhead.org.uk/events for more information.

If you use Facebook, we are at www.facebook.com/groups/WildMaidenhead. If you have spare time and can volunteer, please email wildmaidenhead@gmail.com to offer. We always need help.

	Sunday 19 th May	Tree guard removing in New Thrift Wood	Join WMCV in removing tree guards from the trees in New Thrift Wood. New Thrift Wood is the deer-proof fenced area between Little Thrift Wood and Thrift Lane.
	Friday 24 th May from 19.30h to Saturday 25 th May	Moth trapping at Maidenhead Thicket	The moth traps will operate from 19.30h when there will be an introductory talk. The traps will be set up within a short walk of one of the car parks. Which car park will be announced nearer the date. The attended traps will operate overnight. Those interested will need to return early on Saturday morning (08.00h) to see what has been trapped before they are released into the wild. This event is not particularly sensitive to the number of visitors ... but is very sensitive to the weather. No booking required.
	Sunday 9 th June from 10.00h	Open Day at Bray Pit Nature Reserve	The (almost) annual Open Day at Bray Pit Nature Reserve. Drop in when you like and stay as long as you like. A chance to see its wildlife with the help of those who know the every detail of the place!
	Sunday 21 st July	Wildlife and Lunch at the Landfill	A chance to see in detail what wildlife lives in the grassy area of Braywick Park - all the flowers and beasties and enjoy a picnic lunch with friends and family.

	Early August	The Ivy Bee	An evening Zoom talk on "The Ivy Bee" by Trevor Smith and Martin Woolner prior to launching a local survey of this interesting species offered members of Wild Maidenhead and the other RBWM Wilds.

NB

Later in the year we hope there will be another moth evening, a busy fungus walk (not foray), a celebration of National Tree Week and some practical tasks on Borough sites.
